

WINES

by the sea

“People ask me what makes a wine list great. To begin with, it should tell us stories; stories about the winemakers, their agonies and the vintages; stories about the varieties and the exciting terroirs in which they are planted.

A great wine list is a combination of diversity, excitement and adventure.

It should enable you to swiftly navigate through varieties, regions and diverse styles of wine.

It should also give you exciting alternatives at various price levels.

Wine is fun, above all; this, together with producers who are true to their land, gives the best result.”

WHITE WINE

Cyprus

Over the last few years, the wine industry in Cyprus has been ready to bloom, showing promise and setting high expectations. Cyprus is nowadays experiencing a long-awaited renaissance in its wine industry. This is evidently marked in the quality of the wine produced on the island and vividly evidenced by the rising influence of indigenous grape varieties. These are exciting times for Cyprus wines, with many fascinating wines produced.

Greece

From the shadows of the underground tavernas to Michelin-starred restaurants and from the rocket fuel Retsina of the past to the great Santorinis of the present, Greek wine has made such leaps in the last twenty years that can only compare to those of Olympic Champion Miltiadis Tedoglou. Greek wine not only tells stories, but now creates standards and inspires. This we must celebrate by spreading the word on a new era of Greek wine.

Bordeaux Blends around the globe

Consistently some of the most age-worthy wines have been produced from Bordeaux varieties starring Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot with Cabernet Franc (and Malbec) in supporting roles. Despite having lost some fame with the rise of Burgundy, they still represent the archetypal of an outstanding red wine. Discover the aromas of cigar box, cassis and tobacco in the wines featured in our list.

DESSERT & FORTIFIED WINE

Cyprus Commandaria & Commandaria styles

Regarded as the world's oldest named wine still in production, with the name Commandaria dating back to the crusades in the 12th century, Commandaria is Cyprus heritage that we feel our duty to preserve and communicate. Made nowadays in various ways, it is the perfect ending to an epic dinner.
